Wayne Hall

Senior IT Project Manager / Programme Manager

Ash, England, United Kingdom

Summary

I am senior Project Manager / Programme Manager responsible for delivering large scale complex projects / programmes aligned with organisational strategy. One key part of my current role is to work with the Mergers and Acquisitions team on behalf of the IT organisation. In this role I am responsible for reviewing the IT systems, carrying out all Due Diligence, developing and agreeing the Transition Services Agreements to ultimately managing the project / Programme to deliver the change.

Alongside the hands-on approach, I am responsible for the delivery of projects on behalf of the Project Management Office (PMO). The geographically dispersed team of 25 PM's based in APAC, ME, UK and Canada are accountable for the scoping, planning, resourcing and delivery of all internal infrastructure and application development projects.
